

Asherman's syndrome

Asherman's syndrome is characterized by adhesions that form in the uterine cavity. Most often they follow a D & C done for a miscarriage or post partum bleeding.

The main symptoms are very light periods or no periods following a D & C. The treatment involves cutting the adhesions through a hysteroscope and treatment with large doses of estrogens. Most patients will conceive following treatment.